25X1A9a Dear [REDACTED]

This responds to your 31 December 1958 letter in which you request a total of eight weeks of travel and leave time before reporting for duty at the [REDACTED] I am 25X1A6a happy to advise you that our overall rotation schedule will permit an exception to policy and approval of your request.

In your letter you offer the suggestion that maximum allowable travel time between permanent stations be increased three weeks for each one-year extension period of an overseas tour. Your suggestion is appreciated. However, I believe that such a rule would be impractical, for reasons too numerous and too involved to describe in this letter. I feel that it is better to continue to judge each request on its own merits.

25X1A6a I wish you and your family a pleasant trip back to the [REDACTED] 25X1A6a next summer. I also wish to thank you very much for a fine performance at the [REDACTED]

Sincerely,

25X1A9a

Chief, [REDACTED]
